

UNDERGRADUATE COURSES

Optional papers in Islamic art, architecture and archaeology may be taken as part of the following B.A. Honours degrees taught in the Faculty of Oriental Studies.

BA in Arabic and Islamic Studies

- a further subject in Islamic art and architecture (one paper, Year Three)
- a special subject in Islamic art and architecture (two papers, Year Four)
- a thesis in Islamic art and architecture (one paper, Year Four)

BA in Persian (currently under revision: Hilary 2014)

- Islamic art and architecture in the Persian-speaking world (one paper, Year Four)
- an optional paper in Islamic art and architecture (one paper, Year Four)
- a thesis in Islamic art and architecture (one paper, Year Four)

BA in Turkish with Islamic Art and Archaeology

- a further subject in Islamic art and architecture (one paper, Year Three)
- a special subject in Islamic art and architecture (two papers, Year Four)
- a thesis in Islamic art and architecture in Islamic art and architecture (one paper, Year Four)

See the Handbook of the Undergraduate Courses in Arabic Persian and Turkish
<https://weblearn.ox.ac.uk/access/content/group/a55c44d3-9f21-4dec-b48c-2dc6fa4e4bee/Handbooks/Handbook_BA_Islamic.pdf>

UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSIONS

Please note that the KRC plays no direct role in undergraduate admissions, and prospective undergraduate students should not contact the KRC directly.

General information about undergraduate admissions can be found at the University's Undergraduate Admissions Website <<http://www.ox.ac.uk:admissions:undergraduate/courses:index.html>>.

Specific information can also be found on the undergraduate admissions' page of the Faculty of Oriental Studies <http://www.orinst.ox.ac.uk/general/undergrad_admissions.html>.